Mission:
Protect lunar energy bases from attacking alien armies. Destroy all attackers and face faster, more dangerous and more valuable opponents

Rocket Capabilities:
Guide Space Tactics command rocket up, down, right or left with the control yoke

Plan of Attack:
Pilot the Space Tactics rocket to defend the energy bases against the Jupiter, Pluto, Saturn and Mercury alien forces As the aliens near the energy bases, they release highly explosive bombs Maneuver rocket and fire at oncoming craft Each energy base is equipped with one defense missle Use it only in cases of unavoidable danger An electro-magnetic shield can be activated causing the bombs to explode on contact. The shield offers only temporary protection because the impact of the explosion rips away at the shield When the Jupiter, Pluto and Saturn armies are destroyed, the roving Mercury craft appears to offer a further challenge When it is destroyed, Mission Space Tactics continues, for increased challenge and excitement!
